Exception 1 (Subject to tax): For each related entity for which the taxpayer claims an exception, identify all states and foreign countries in which the related entity paid a tax measured by net income or capital and attach a copy of the tax returns filed (schedules and supplemental forms may be omitted). Show the portion of the tax paid by the related entity on its separate return that is attributed to the royalties and other expenses related to intangible property. If the related entity filed a consolidated or combined return in the other state or foreign country with the taxpayer, then the recipient's income and taxpayer's deduction offset each other and no tax is deemed paid.
